From the Pastor’s Heart

Sunday was a wonderful day as the body of Christ gathered at Beallwood. What a wonderful sight to see and hear God’s people in worship, just fellowshipping and speaking life to one another. Thank you, Lord, for the privilege of gathering with your people. And, body of Christ, please pray for one another as we go forward.

May I encourage our church family to remember that we will have morning worship for the remainder of the month of June. We are ever so careful about seeking to make the wisest choices regarding when to begin evening worship, Sunday School, and the other activities. Please pray for God’s leadership in the life of the church in making wise decisions.

May I say to our church family again how much I appreciate the way that you have supported the church financially. It has been very encouraging in these trying months to see the positive impact of your financial giving in the life of our church. You have been faithful, and for that, we are thankful. May we continue to be faithful and honor our Lord.

The writer of Ecclesiastes reminds us in 3:1: “To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven.” The writer of these words is not ignorant or blind to the reality that God is on His throne and is sovereign. The events of the last few months might be viewed by some as just another chapter in the course of history. Yet, I believe that the Word of the Lord reveals to us a compassionate, wise, gracious, and faithful Father who is orchestrating every event. We cannot judge the events by the moment; we must look at them while faithfully contemplating the eternal plan of God. I say that just to remind our church family and myself that, as we move back to regathering, we must take into consideration all things. May I encourage the church family to please pray for wisdom and discernment as we attempt to make decisions about Sunday School, Wednesday night, Sunday night, and bringing everything back to normal at Beallwood. I know that some want everything now, while some want to wait, and others do not know. So, my attempt will be to prayerfully and in a calculated way seek wise counsel and make the decisions that will be best for the Beallwood family.

May the Lord bless and help us all in these days to trust Him more. I look forward to gathering each week with our church family.

Father’s Day
Building a Legacy of Faith
Genesis 5:21-24

The story of Enoch is one of the most encouraging stories in the opening pages of the book of Genesis. The introduction of the life of Enoch is an actual break from the despairing language at the end of each patriarch’s life, “and he died.”

The Bible records the words, “Enoch lived sixty-five years, and begot Methuselah, after he begot Methuselah, Enoch walked with God.”

These words of encouragement lie amid the words that remind us that the world was full of evil. Humankind was in rebellion against God, and the earth was under the burden of sin. Yet, Enoch became a parent.

When Enoch became a father and a parent, it changed his life. He built a legacy of faith.

How might we as fathers build a legacy of faith?

Enoch believed God. (vs. 21-22)

Enoch walked with God. (vs. 23)

Enoch went to be with God. (vs. 24)

Beallwood fathers, will you build a legacy of faith?
